- IARC 492                      Electric Lighting                      3 credits

It is possible to take other interior architecture courses and apply them to the minor with the permission of the instructor and your academic advisor (ex. IARC 407 seminars and IARC 410 courses).

Architectural History (ARH subject heading) courses may be counted toward the minor: up to 8 credits for students within the School of Architecture and Environment, and up to 13 credits for students outside SAE. Courses besides ARH 314 or 315 may be taken once pre-requisites are passed. Courses should be selected from the Department of Architecture's list of approved Art History courses that fulfill the history requirements for Architecture majors.

*IARC 473 is the companion course to IARC 487 Working Drawings Studio; IARC 471, IARC 472, and ARCH 470 are prerequisites for IARC 473. The prerequisite for 473 must be fulfilled prior to taking this course, and will also count toward the minor in Interior Architecture.
