

Transforming Streets for Autonomous & Micro-vehicles

Landscape Architecture 4/589 Spring 2019 with Rob Ribe

We will work with the city of Gresham and the U.O. Sustainable City Year Program to redesign their downtown streets to fit radically new future transport systems in ways that help the district become a wonderful place to live, play and visit with much higher residential densities and diversity.